

INFO 5637 - Medical Informatics

3 hours

Informatics in healthcare. The framework of modern healthcare and the role of information. Organization of medical knowledge. Key health information resources used in decision-making. Information systems and technology and its applications to healthcare settings and health information settings including libraries.

Prerequisite(s): None.

Course specific fees (in addition to tuition and mandatory):

Academic (AF) per hour: $13.80
