

INFO 5200 - Information Organization

3 hours

Principles, concepts and practices of information organization and presentation. Concepts and problems of human information behavior, classification and categorization related to information organization. Database technology, structure and design. Standards for information organization, data representation and information exchange. Systems for organizing information and facilitating information access in various information use environments.

Prerequisite(s): None.

Course specific fees (in addition to tuition and mandatory):

Academic (AF) per hour: $13.80
